Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

Hello, I am a published author. I have published three books all on the subject of Mexican American cultural. I speak Spanish and have volunteered for non-profits in Austin that focus on this segment of the population. My background and skills have given me the unique opportunity to study Austin from a different view point which has allowed me to use logical reasoning in my leadership positions I have held in Austin and across Texas for more than two decades.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I was raised by an Anglo grandfather and Mexican-American parents. I learned that you had to listen to different view points based on different cultural values. To be impartial means to me, to have an understanding of different values, but facts are facts and you must in the end make decision not to please all, but do what is fair. One recent example is working the polls for the National election this past November. I spoke Spanish and would translate for Spanish speaking people. A few times I had to assist people who were not voting for my candidate. I could have lied outright, but my oath and my principals are to defend voices, despite my political views. Being impartial can be challenging, but you must be a good American.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I have lived in Austin since 1980. I went to David Crockett High School and graduated in 1982. I went to ACC at Rio Grande campus and Ridge View (no longer there). I received my degree from Southwest Texas State University in English and Anthropology. As a high school student I worked at Red Lobster on South Lamar as a dish washer. Then, still as a high school student, I left Red Lobster and got a job at Brackenridge Hospital in X-Ray and E.R. as a transporter. I also worked at UT Austin for the Vice President and Provost office as file clerk. I worked for the Austin Public Library at the Spicewood Springs branch in North Austin and Pleasant Hill in South Austin. I drove UT shuttles for four years and also drove buses for A.I.S.D. and was a substitute teacher for four years in Austin as well. I was on the board for Cine Las Americas Latin Film Festival for seven years and also sat the Noche de Opera for the Austin Lyric Opera for six years. I was on a Harry Ransom Center committee for the 50 anniversary. I was the KLRU PBS TV Latino advisory committee for three years and sat on the KLRU community advisory board for four years. I have lived in South Austin, West Austin and East Austin. I know every short cut and the best restaurants, bars, music venues and museums. I used to attend Aqua Fest. I was at the first South By Southwest and the first ACL. I have climbed Mount Bonnell so many times to watch the sunset. I have jogged Lake Austin and Capital K. I used to bowl at Dart bowl and played put put golf off Burnet. My hometown is South, East, West, Central and North Austin. The Colorado river does not divide my home.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I voted for this proposal and I want to help make Austin a better place with a stronger voice.
